

HAPPY SLOTH PRESS

STORIES THAT LINGER.
BOOKS WITH A CONSCIENCE.

Happy Sloth Press is an independent Australian publisher producing beautifully written, purpose-driven stories. Established in 2020, we focus on books that spark reflection, empathy, and curiosity in readers of all ages.

In 2021, we made the switch to FSC-certified paper and soy-based inks, continuing our commitment to greener publishing and mindful storytelling.

Happy Sloth Press proudly represents author and illustrator Alida Whiteoak, whose heartfelt and humorous stories encourage children to explore big ideas with curiosity and courage.

A former nurse and certified yoga teacher, Alida left her clinical career to write full-time, creating books that blend warmth, wit, and mindfulness.
